From what I can tell, OpenLayers3 is the newest version of OpenLayers and the license has been revised to Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-Share Alike 3.0. When I look at the OpenLayers version 2.x documentation, it indicates that it is based on OpenLayers2, not OpenLayers3. So my question is, what is the difference between the version 2 and version 3? Is version 3 completely different from version 2, or is it just a new way of doing things and/or reusing the same code as version 2? A:
