The game features an open world environment, allowing the player to travel throughout the streets of San Andreas and to interact with various characters. The player's progress is tracked through an in-game character named Carl "CJ" Johnson. The player can either control CJ or use the "Skip Ad" function to skip dialogue and cutscenes. The player character can gain access to various weapons, and can use these to commit various crimes, resulting in the player being put on a wanted list by various factions. To avoid arrest, the player must commit various criminal activities, which can result in the player being arrested. Plot Setting and design Grand Theft Auto: San Andreas is set in San Andreas, the fictional setting of the game. San Fierro and Las Venturas have the same overall structure as Los Santos, but differ in geography. San Fierro is a typical American city, while Las Venturas has been designed as a Las Vegas resort city. The city of San Fierro and Las Venturas are located in southern California. According to IGN, San Andreas is one of the largest cities in the world and its game world is about the size of the state of California. The game's island setting is inspired by the city of Miami in Florida. IGN's Jason Ocampo stated that the most memorable scene is the "easter egg" view of the city of San Fierro.
