Jun 25, 2020 Download Free Software for Windows 10. There's an immense joy in performing before an appreciative audience. But unless you have an excellent inner voice, you will frequently make a grievous mistake in public. The voice will not tell you what you intend to do, only the moments leading up to what you intend to do. A mistake is made in the moment that you decide on the goal to meet, not in the moment that you decide on the means. Programming your body is essentially this.

Category:Indian masculine given namesQ: How to get REST API working with JPA and MongoDB? I'm new to REST and how to get it working with JPA. I'm also learning JPA and MongoDB at the same time. I can't get to get JSON responses from the REST API working. I'm using HttpClient on Android to talk to the API. The error I'm getting is: Unexpected status 200 from URL: The client that is making the request has an Application Adapter configured. I'm not sure if that is part of the problem. I'm using Spring, Java, Hibernate, and MongoDB. Here's the entity bean

@Document(collection = "health") public class HealthResponse { @Id private String Id; private String status; } This is the repository @Repository public class HealthRepository extends MongoRepository { public HealthResponse findByStatus(String status) { return healthRequest.findFirstOrDefault(HealthRespon se.class, status); } } The health request is in a different package in the API project @RestController(path =
"/test", has = RestConstants 1cb139a0ed
